Equality and Diversity Ethos Statement

EduTrain360 is fully committed to promoting, maintaining, and supporting equality and diversity in all aspects of its work. EduTrain360 aims to create an environment where all individuals can achieve their full potential and gain a feeling of self-esteem and respect for and from all others. EduTrain360 expresses its opposition to all forms of inequality and discrimination. This Equality and Diversity policy is the principal policy for equality, diversity, and social inclusion for EduTrain360.

1. Background

1.1 The Equality Act 2010:

The Equality Act 2010 became law on 1st October 2010. The Act introduces common definitions of discrimination. The nine 'protected characteristics' under the Act are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender
- Race
- Gender reassignment (people undergoing gender reassignment or who are trans-gender)
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation (gay, lesbian, bisexual, and heterosexual orientation)

1.2 Students and staff must be protected from discrimination and harassment on these grounds. The Act also protects against discrimination by association and perception, e.g., a partner or carer of someone with a protected characteristic should also be protected from discrimination and harassment.

2. Public Sector Equality Duty

The Public sector Equality Duty is set out in section 149 of the Act and came into force on 5th April 2011.

2.1 The Equality Duty has three aims. It requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation, and any other conduct prohibited by the Act.

- advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it, and
- foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

2.2 EduTrain360 must have due regard to these duties in the carrying out of its functions. Having due regard means consciously thinking about the three aims of the general duty as part of the process of decision-making.

2.3 For example, having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity involves considering the need to:

- remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
- meet the needs of people with protected characteristics; and
- encourage people with protected characteristics to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is low.

2.4 Fostering good relations involves tackling prejudice and promoting understanding between people who share a protected characteristic and others.

3. Specific duties

3.1 The Public Sector specific duty requires all public bodies to publish information to demonstrate the extent to which it furthered the aims of the general equality duty. Subsequent information must be published at least annually.

3.2 The regulations require public bodies to:

- Publish equality objectives every four years.
- Publish information annually to demonstrate their compliance with the general Equality Duty.
- Publish information relating to their employees (for bodies with 150 or more staff) and others affected by their policies and practices (such as service users, e.g., students).

3.3 All information must be published in a way that is accessible to the public.

3.4 EduTrain360 will uphold its public sector duty as outlined above and actively seek to ensure that both students and staff experience equality of opportunity and are free from harassment, discrimination, or victimisation of any kind, regarding the protected characteristics. Furthermore, EduTrain360 recognises and extends this policy to include, social status and deprivation, homelessness, unemployment, asylum and refugee status or membership of a trade union, or for any other identifiable cause protected by law.

- 3.5 As a responsible body, Edutrain360 recognises and accepts its vicarious liability for the actions of staff, students, and sub-contractors. Edutrain360 will comply with all legislation, regulations, statutory and non-statutory codes of practice and our contractual requirements relating to equality and diversity.
- 3.6 Edutrain360 will challenge all forms of inequality, discrimination, and harassment, and actively promote opportunities for the groups mentioned in 1.1 and foster good relations between them. This work is regarded as the responsibility of all staff at Edutrain360.
- 3.7 Any action which contravenes this policy renders individuals employed by Edutrain360 or students liable for disciplinary action. Evidence of discrimination or harassment may be considered as gross misconduct. Clients or contractors who contravene the policy can expect appropriate action.
